ROBBERS KILL ONE

Muskogee, Okla., June 18.—In a battle between officers and three train robbers who held up the St. Louis & Iron Mountain freight train near Bragg, Oklahoma, early today, deputy constable Johnson Kirk was killed.

Paul Williams, one of the robbers, was shot through the breast and captured. Two other robbers escaped but posses are pursuing them.

The object of the robbers was to get money on the pay train. The resistance of the train crew attracted the officers and Kirk was shot thru the head.

HENEY GOES AFTER THE #### FRISCO GRAFTERS HARD.

San Francisco, June 18.—Francis J. Heney was interrupted three times during the first thirty minutes of his address to the jury this morning in the prosecution of Patrick Calhoun, accused of attempted bribery. The exceptions were taken by the attorneys for the defense on the grounds of misconduct. Twenty policemen guarded the entrance to the court room and a squad of secret agents escorted Heney to the room. Another squad of armed men guarded the jury box.

Heney plunged directly into his discourse. He charged Tiley L. Ford with giving Reut money for the supervisors for the trolley permit. He said that Michael Coffey, a supervisor, was convicted on the same evidence offered here but he did not have enough money to obstruct justice.

GEORGE GOULD MAY GO ON #### THE STAND TO TESTIFY.

New York, June 18.—The procession of servants and employees to the witness stand in the Gould divorce case continued today. Since the third day when Mrs. Gould lost control of her feelings and wept, she has kept herself well in hand. The only sign she has made was a shake of the head and a sarcastic smile. Attorney Nicolay, for Mr. Gould, said he might call the latter to the stand during the day and Shearn, lawyer for Mrs. Gould, promised a severe cross examination if this happens.

Harry J. Velch, formerly employed as valet by Mrs. Gould was called by the defense. During his employment he traveled with Mrs. Gould in the West Indies and in Europe and attended her at the St. Regis hotel and at Castle Gould. He said he once assisted in preparing her toilet on one occasion. He said he saw her under the influence of liquor several times and that she drank a great deal of liquor. He described one instance at Castle Gould, when she drank a great deal becoming boisterous and threatening to "fire everybody on the place."

"She asked me to tie her slippers, and when I started to do it, kicked them off in the air," said the witness, "and later in the evening, though staggering, ordered two more cocktails."

Velch told of an incident at the St. Regis when Mrs. Gould ordered him to throw the table, laden with dishes, into the hall. He said Mrs. Gould stood at the door of her apartment, watching him and expressed approval when he threw the table into the main corridor. He said it made a great racket but he believed no one saw him do it. He merely did it because he had been told to do so and Mrs. Gould stood by to see that he obeyed orders.

Henry K. Knowles, an insurance agent, said he took dinner with the Goulds at the St. Regis, when she became very disagreeable. Also Gould, he said, left the table on one occasion when his wife was drinking.

Knowles referred to an automobile trip from Paris to Nice and said Mrs. Gould continually was complaining to her husband and using strong language. He said they attended a mask ball in costume.

"What costume did you wear?" was asked.

"Mine was Trilby, and Mr. Gould appeared as Cupid." This brought great laughter, in which Mrs. Gould joined, looking at her husband and enjoying his discomfiture.

Respect Your Horse.

When your horse needs shoeing, you know that you want him properly shod, as you would want a pair of well fitting shoes for yourself. It's a most important part of the horse's usefulness and comfort to have the shoes fitted and nailed by a man who thoroughly understands his business in every detail. The shoeing department of T. M. Rabb, the first blacksmithing establishment east from Main street on Second street, is in charge of S. A. Whitesides, an expert shoer. Satisfaction is absolutely guaranteed in each and every instance and every part of the work, flooring and all is not done by novices, but is done personally supervised by Mr. Whitesides. Also every branch of blacksmithing is done in a workmanlike and satisfactory manner. Bring your blacksmithing wants to the Old Reliable and save yourself any annoyance by inferior work.

TODAY IN THE SENATE

Washington, June 18.—The senate today voted down Senator Brown's amendment placing print paper on the free list of the tariff bill, 29 to 52. Senator Lorimer, the new member from Illinois, voted against the amendment. Brown decided not to make any further remarks in favor of his amendment and gave way to Gallinger, who replied to many statements made by the Nebraska senator in favor of free paper.

For eleven years, said Gallinger, the paper manufacturers have been advocating forest preservation and in so doing had purchased twice as much land in Canada as in the United States. He declared that in wages alone the Canadian paper makers have the advantage of two dollars a ton in making paper, besides the advantage of eight dollars in cord wood. He declared the prices had been kept down by competition and it is conceded no trust exists and no combination to raise the price of paper. He said the newspapers are far from unanimous on this subject of free print paper. "The clamor for this legislation," he said, "comes from the cheap and the sensational newspapers." He declared the reduction in paper would not only bring Canadian paper but Norway, Sweden and Finland, which, with their cheap labor would compete with the American paper manufacturers.

city ordinance relating to the installation of electric wiring and connecting with the city service lines. It was alleged that defendant did not secure a permit before putting in the electric wiring in the new Wooten Business College and did not get another permit when it came to connect with the service lines. These permits must be secured from R. M. Patrick, the city electrical inspector. Justice Welter found the defendant guilty and gave them the lowest fine, $25 and costs. ## AUTO RACE RESULTS

Crown Point, Ind., June 18.—With nearly every available portion of the course occupied by thousands of spectators lined up to witness the auto races on the twenty-six mile track this morning, after a majority of the prospective spectators spent the night in the cold, every town within a radius of ten miles is filled to overflowing and more are coming this morning. All the racing cars have been placed in readiness and the track is cleared for the races. Soldiers of the First Illinois regiment are detailed at 41 military stations along the route to keep order and to prevent accidents. Telegraphers are also stationed to flash the results of the judges at the grand stand. By seven o'clock this morning the people had been cleared off the track and the contest was about to start.

Later.—Matson, in a Chalmers' Detroit, won the Indiana cup for stock cars in today's race over the "Western Vanderbilt" course. Robertson in a Locomobile car and Monson in a Marlon, were second and third. Time for 232 miles, 4-31-21.

FEDERAL MEAT INSPECTORS

LAX IN THEIR DUTIES.

East St. Louis, Ill., June 18.—Corroboration of many of the charges against the government meat inspection system here, was given to the officials who are investigating conditions, by Julius Bischoff, an inspector who was on the stand when the inquiry continued today. According to J. F. Harms, whose open letter to Secretary Wilson, caused the inquiry, Bischoff substantiated many of his co-workers assertion. The secrecy with which the inquiry was conducted caused much comment about the stock yards. The officials of the packing companies believe the secrecy will hurt the future of the business.

Harms thinks the statement of Dr. A. D. Melvin, who is conducting the inquiry, that the charges are baseless, detrimental to the inquiry, and for this reason declined to participate in the inquiry, unless it is open to the press.

MAN WITH A GRAFT

WRITES A ROSWELL MAN.

Ed J. Howard, one of the drivers for the Roswell Gas Company, is in receipt of a letter from one Bellavsky, who is reputed to be a Russian banker who absconded with the ready cash of a St. Petersburg bank and is now in prison in Madrid, Spain, awaiting trial for man-slaughter, and in this letter is a request that Mr. Howard help the Russian out of his trouble, for which he offers to give him a third of his fortune of $480,000 or $160,000. It takes the price of a cablegram to find out the nature of the graft, for a letter won't do, says Bellavsky.

The letter comes properly stamped, postmarked and bearing every evidence of the European post, even to the kind of stationery and the character of the penmanship, composition, etc. Along with it is a clipping from a London newspaper which throws light on the request in the letter. The clipping tells of the arrest of Bellavsky in London; that he is the man who absconded from Russia with five million rubles, that he went to Spain and while there in hiding with his daughter, killed another Russian, that upon his arrest there was a squabble between the Spanish and Russian ambassadors as to whether he should be taken to Spain for man slaughter or to Russia for absconding. He was finally taken to Spain where he awaits trial. The clipping also states that the Russian's two portmanteaus were seized and searched but nothing but personal effects were found.

The letter follows:

Madrid, 29/5/09.
Although I know you only from good references of your honesty, my sad situation compels me to recall to you an important affair in which you can procure a modest fortune, saving at the same time that of my darling daughter.

Before being imprisoned here I was established as a banker in Russia, as you will see by the inclosed article about me of many English newspapers which have published my arrest in London.

I beseech you to help me to obtain a sum of 480,000 dollars I have in America and to come here to raise the seizure of my baggage, paying to the Register of the Court the expenses of my trial and recover my portmanteau containing a secret pocket where I have hidden the document indispensable to recover the said sum.

As a reward, I will give up to you the third part, viz 160,000 dollars. I cannot receive your answer in the pris on but you must send a cablegram to a person of my confidence, who will deliver it to me.

Awaiting your cable, to instruct you in all my secret, I am Sir,
Yours truly,
BELLAVSKY.

First of all answer by cable, not by letter, as follows:

BENAYAS,

Calle Esgrima 12 Segundo derscha, Madrid.

Offer accepted.

Since the receipt of this letter, it has been learned that at least three other letters almost identically the same as the above, have been received by other citizens in the Southwest. One was received at Carlsbad, another at Las Cruces and a third at El Paso. Mention was made of all of them in an El Paso paper and one was published there in full.

Boy's Foot Hurt in a Press.

John Lamont, a boy of 19, who was at work on the B. P. Murchison farm two miles southeast of Roswell, got his foot mashed in a hay press there at five o'clock yesterday evening and was brought to St. Mary's hospital for treatment. Although no bones were broken, the injury was very painful.

Mr. Griffes, who was here yesterday looking up the matter of locating a factory in Roswell, left this morning, dissatisfied with the reception he was given and the manner in which his proposition was treated.

If you have something to sell; if you have something to trade, or something you wish to buy, tell the Record.
